PRISCILLIAN IS A WINNER

BELMONT HORSE THAT FAILED IN ENGLAND SCORES AT PIMLICO.

Wins a Sprint in Impressive Fashion-Weights An nounced for the Preakness

Handicap.

Baltimore, Md., May 2.—August Belmont's Priscillian made his appearance in this country after a season abroad in the third race at Pimlico this afternoon and scored an impressive victory over a band of the best sprinters on the ground. Before leaving for England, Priscillian was rated as one of the best horses in training in this country, and when he failed to win on the other side, race-goers were wondering if he had lost his form. In his race today, Priscillian shouldered 130 pounds, conceded weight to everything in the race and, coming from behind, won handsomely. Had the distance been further he would have won much more easily. The early pace was extremely fast considering the state of the going, the first quarter being run in 234 and the first half in 472. In the stretch Priscillian overhauled the leaders and won going away.

There was more class to the races than on any previous day of the meeting. Lochiel defeated a good colt in Stinger in the opening dash. The latter, an extra good looker, was making his maiden effort and ran a bit green. At that he forced Lochiel to a hard drive to beat him a length and the general impression is that the next time the pair meet the order of the finish will be reversed.

Fred Littlefield's Jubilee scored another victory when he won the fifth race in a canter. This good horse pulled up a trifle sore after his race, however, but this did not deter Lis young owner from entering him in the Toronio Cup and other events to be run at the Woodbine course this spring.

Black Bridge, winner of the steeplechase, was boosted $600 over his centered price of $400 by George P. Sherman, but the horse was protected by his owner and bought in.

E. Dugan was substituted for jockey Reid on Anna L. Daley in the seventh race. ## GUY GARNER LEADING THE JOCKEYS.

Guy Garner, the lightweight apprentice whose contract is held by Earl Linnell, wrested the lead in the list of American jockeys for 1910 from V. Powers during the past week. Garner, who is riding on the New York tracks, won with nine of his mounts during the week and is displaying championship form in the saddle. The ability which he has already displayed will undoubtedly bring him increased opportunities, and he has an excellent chance for carrying off the honors of 1910. The record of the thirty leading American riders from January 1 to and including the racing of Saturday last is as follows:

GOLDFINN WINS PERALTA HANDICAP.

San Francisco, Cal., May 2.—Goldfinn gained an easy victory over some good sprinters in the Peralta Handicap at Oakland today. The mare was a heavily backed favorite and justified the public confidence by leading practically all the way and going the three-quarters in 1:12\(\frac{2}{3}\). Spohn was second, with Rey Hindoo third.

Four first choices finished in front, and the other races went to outsiders. J. M. Crane won with Rosamo and Billy Myer. The latter was a 10 to 1 chance in his last race, and he and E. M. Fry got off by themselves, Airs, the favorite, and Tramotor were away badly.

Sir Barry, an outsider, beat Swagerlator a head in the third. Kaiserhoff proved an easy winner of the fifth. He was bid up from $300 to $400 by C. B. Heath, and was retained.

Jockey Taylor was fined $25 for cutting across with Sir Barry.

CORRECTION OF ODDS.

CORRECTION OF ODDS.

The pay-off prices for show on Crystal Maid. Han-bridge and Grenade in races $9286 and $9288 were incorrectly sent out from Lexington Saturday. The correct prices on $2 show tickets on these horses were as follows: Crystal Maid, $2.99; Hanbridge, $2.60; Grenade, $4. This would make the equivalent booking odds on these horses for show as follows: Crystal Maid, 45 to 100; Hanbridge, 30 to 100; Gre-nade, even money.

WALDO'S DERBY FAVORITISM CONFIRMED BY GOOD TRIAL

Louisville, Ky., May 2.—The Kentucky Derby of 1910 is now sure of having a field of from twelve to fifteen on May 10. Of the thirty that qualified to start in the big race, fifteen have dropped by the wayside as probable starters. Barleythorpe, Collis Ormsby, Tom Toohey and Don Antonio are all in the cast and will not come west until the close of the season. Phil Mohr is in California and will remain on the coast, while Master Eugene, Ben K, Sleet, Tyras, Markie M., McGill's Hope, Vreeland and Melbourne have displayed no Derby class in Irlals. Sickness has interfered with the preparation of The Fad and Captain Morris.

Of the remaining fifteen it is difficult to figure on any that may drop out. It would be no surprise if all of this high-class hand face the barrier, which would equal the record in the inumber of starters in this event.

The accompanying table, showing the best performances of the probable starters since they became three-year-olds, demonstrates that the Derby is an open race. Last winter, when these horses commenced their first training for the race, it looked ali Waldo. Nw it appears that there are other Derby possibilities, and the Harrison colt may fail to deliver. One thing is nearly sure—the winner this year will be the crack of the season, as it seems certain that many of the starters, even if beatea in this race, will shine on the turf in 1910.

Of the performances noted in the table, Boca Grande scored his mile trial for the race in 1:412 in a race at Jacksonville, which he won. The track was good. Boola Boola went his trial at the kentucky Association track at Lexington, with the track good. Colinet's mile in 1:462 was run over the farm track at Idle Hour Stud, near Lexington, which is considered slow. Charles F, Grainger did his trial at Churchill Downs on a heavy, track. Donau worked over the same course, but it was drying out. Eye White also worked at the Downs, but the track was good. Fighting Bob's trial, at the Downs, was over a good track, G, M, Miller did his best mile in Canad

The program book of the first eleven days of the twenty-three days spring race meeting, which begins May 10, at Churchill Downs, and which was compiled and arranged by Secretary Lyman H. Davis, surpasses his previous efforts and is the equal in every way of any book issued by any of the New York racing organizations. The book is artistic; it contains information valuable to the patrons of the sport and it is indexed, thus rendering it easy for those who desire to quickly ascertain what they want to know. The front of the cover bears a splendid half-tone of Wintergreen, winner of the 1909 Derby, in a purple box, emblematic of the colors of J. B. Respess, On the back is shown a half-tone of Aristides, winner of the first Derby, and the green and yellow colors of his owner, Price McGrath.

The conditions of the races are given, also the previous winners of the Derby, Debutante Stakes, Clark Handicap, Colonel Stakes, Rashford Manor Stakes, Tobacco Stakes, formerly run as the Blue Grass and Maiden Stakes, Juvenile Stakes, Frank Fehr Stakes, Louisville Handicap and Kentucky Oaks.

The stake dates for the coming meeting are as follows:

Waldo, the Derby favorite, went a mile and a quarter, the full distance of the great race, at Churchill Downs yesterday. The trial was over a track nearly as fast as on a regular race day, but a stiff breeze, blowing up the backstretch, was a little against the colt. Early in the morning trainer Raleigh Colston cantered Waldo slowly once around the inside track. Then he put him away to await the arrival from Lexington of C. L. Harrison and jockey Vincent Powers.

the arrival from Lexington of C. L. Harrison and jockey Vincent Powers.

Upon their arrival Waldo and his work companion, Dorante, came upon the track with their regular exercise boys up. With Borante in the lead trainer Colston let Waldo gallop a mile, and then brought them back and walked then fifteen minutes in front of the judges' stand. When the horses had been properly cooled out, Powers mounted Waldo and, with Dorante, went up to the sixieenth post and started the trial, the fractionals of which were as follows: 12\frac{2}{3}, 24\frac{4}{3}, 36\frac{2}{3}, 48\frac{3}{3}, 1:01\frac{2}{3}, 1:14\frac{2}{3}, 1:28\frac{2}{3}$ mile and one-eighth, 1:56\frac{2}{3}$ and the mile and a quarter, 2:11. Dorante pulled up at the three-quarters post and the Derby favorite came the last half unpaced. Trainer Colston seemed satisfied with the colt's performance, as he only worked at his best for a mile, Powers slowing him down the last quarter and especially the final eighth. The colt seemed a bit tired, but many trainers who witnessed the trial thought this was due alone to a shortness in work, and that with another fast mile and a quarter Waldo would be about keyed up. Owner Harrison was pleased with Waldo's appearance. This work of Waldo strengthens his status at the Dechy favorite. At this time he is quoted as a 5 to 2 chance. Fighting Bob is 3 to 1: Donau, 5 to 1, and Topland and Relluf are quoted at 8 to 1. The other probable starters range from 10 to 50 to 1. Powers seemed to like the colt, but intimated that Waldo needed a pacemaker in order to get from him his best effort. Powers formed this opinion, he said, from the fact that after Dorante pulled up at the three-quarters post Waldo slackened perceptibly in his stride.

The work of other than Derby candidates at the Downs yesterday was rather of a slow order, with ceptibly in his stride.

The work of other than Derby candidates at the Downs yesterday was rather of a slow order, with the exception of the two-year-old Pit-a-Pit, a Debutante Stakes candidate, from the stable of C. C. Van Meter. She worked a half in 50½. Wintergreen, winner of the 1909 Kentucky Derby, went a half in 51, and the speedy sprinter, T. M. Green, went the same distance in similar time. The latter could easily have worked the distance in 49 or better.

Waldo came nicely out of his Derby route trial of 2:11 on Sunday and today, when cantered around the inside track, showed no signs of soreness and looked the perfect picture of good health and condition. Trainer Colston will give the great colt a short work of four or five furlongs probably tomorrow and will set him down again Wednesday to about his limit over the full Derby course. Trainers believe that the son of Planudes will then clearly establish his right to the position of post favorite in the big race, as they look for him to work a most sensational trial.

The broodmare Dixoletta, which has produced for the Marklein stable the useful racers Beau Brummel, W. A. Leach, The Royal Prince and Prince Imperial, has just foaled a filly by Dick Welles. Marklein will mate Dixoletta this season to Orlando, and the produce will be either a brother or sister to the $12,000 Prince Imperial. Other interesting stud news at the Downs is that J. R. Wainwright's race mare La Pucelle has foaled a chestnut colt, by Star Shoot. Fred Luzader will this year break her first produce, a yearling bay filly by Ben Strome. She will be mated this season with Ogden. Mr. Wainwright's other good mare, Polly Prim, will be bred this season for the first time, and he has selected Orlando as her mate.

T. H. Stevens has shipped fourteen horses to Latonia in charge of his son, John Stevens, Five of the Stevens horses will be raced at Churchill Downs.

THE TURK WINS THE WILLIAMSBURGH.

New York, May 2.—The Turk again proved that he is one of the topnotch three-year-olds of this season by handily winning the Williamsburgh Stakes at Aqueduct today from James R. Keene's Grasmere and the Goldcrest colt. Everett. The Turk was in receipt of four pounds from Grasmere, and it was the first start of the Keene colt, but what made his race particularly impressive was that after being apparently beaten at the furlong post he stood a long drive gamely to come away to ultimate victory by almost two lengths. Grasmere raced well for a first effort and should surely make good later. Last season Grasmere went to the races earlier than The Turk and was always a better colt in the opinion of the handicapper. Should he improve as is expected over his race of today he will still hold The Turk safe for sprinting distances at least, though doubt still exists as to just how far he will race. Turk safe for sprinting distances at the will race.

It was a good day for the public, four of its choices being first home, while Kormak and Stafford, the other winners, while not actual choices, each had a good following. The weather was threatening and cloudy, but the track was fast and the racing interesting. In the handicap, Polls, running a vastly improved race-over his previous effort, ran a mile in 1:38, equaling the track record to win in a romp from Zienap. This mare was handled with poor judgment by jockey Glass, who made no move until too late. When she was called on in the last furlong she raced to place easily.

T. W. O'Brien's Pluvious, evidently a fine colt. made a show of his company in the four and a half furlongs dash and on his showing both in wet and dry at Aqueduct, he is evidently destined for better things as the season advances.

On excellent authority, it was announced today that jockey C. H. Shilling would be granted a license to ride and he may have a mount tomorrow. His case of assault on his former employer, R. L. Thomas, was dismissed in court today and it was the only bar to his license. He is under contract to ride for S. C. Hildreth and will also do considerable riding for H. K. Knapp of the Oneck Stable, and F. R. Hitchcock, both stewards of the Jockey Club. John E. Madden today made his first appearance at the track for this season.

PROPOSE TO AMEND LOUISIANA LAW.

New Orleans, La., May 2.—The Louisiana legislature will meet next Monday, and it is generally believed that a powerful effort will be made to amend the stringent Locke law, which brought about the closing of the race tracks of Louisiana. It is proposed to create a state racing commission for Louisiana similar to that in control of the sport in Kentucky.

M'DOWELL JUVENILES WIN

KENTUCKY TURFMAN CAPTURES BOTH TWO-YEAR-OLD RACES AT LEXINGTON.

Form Reversal of W. A. Leach Calls Forth Investigation by the Judges-H. G. Bedwell Negotiating for Wheatcroft Horses.

Lexington, Ky., May 2.—In winning the Phoenix, Hotel Handicap, the feature of the Kentucky Association's second day card this afternoon, W. A. Leach precipitated an investigation that may result in trouble for John Marklein, his owner and trainer, and Hufnagel, his rider. In the fifth race, at one mile, Saturday, W. A. Leach was beaten off seventeen lengths in 1:40½ by Donau, with Boola Boola, Joe Morris, Console and Markie M. also in front of him at the finish. Today he jumped into the lead as they passed the stand and made a merry romp of it over the mile and twenty yards route in 1:40½, defeating Topland, Royal Report, Hans. Ozana, Darknight and Stolypin. There was some improvement in track conditions today, but Mr. Marklein did not use this as a defense when he was called into the stand to explain the form reversal to judges Thomas H. Clay, Foxhall A. Daingerfield and Garrett D. Wilson. Mr. Marklein said that in Saturday's race the horse was struck in the eye with a clod and that he had bathed it all day Sunday and this morning. He said that he bet only $20 on the horse to show today. He offered some corroborative evidence as to the horse having been hit with a clod. The judges have deferred action pending further investigation.

After John E. McMillan had scored a handy vicas to the horse having been hit with a clod. The judges have deferred action pending further investigation.

After John E. McMillan had scored a handy victory over Quagga and Earl of Richmond, the two choices in the closing race, W. J. Young bid up the winner and bought him for $700, which was $300 over his entered price. Mr. Young went at once into the judges' stand saying that it was his impression that a stimulant had been given to the winner and that his purpose in buying him was primarily to have him efficially examined. Dr. Robert Bryan was sent for. He examined John E. McMillan and reported to the judges that there were no traces of drugs. This exonerated trainer Fred Luzader.

T. C. McDowell captured both the juvenile races run this afternoon with Premier and Attentive, E. Baxter bought Broadway Boy from E. R. Bradley before the opening race for a reported price of $750, and won him out when the horse scored handly. Jockey George Mountain arrived today from Los Angeles. He has signed to ride for J. Hal Woodford this season, but does not expect to don colors until next week at Louisville.

Camden Handicap and Kentucky Derby candidates worked today as follows:

OLD-TIME RACING IN CANADA.

OLD-TIME RACING IN CANADA.

"In the brave days of old horses traveled great distances to race meetings and the means of transportation were not the swift and easy conveniences of today," writes Francis Nelson in the Toronto Globe. "The late 'Hank' Chappell, of Sandwich, often told of journeys covering the vast territory between St. Hyacinthe, Quebec, and New Orleans, La., with his horses, and they ran four-mile heats when they reached the distant battle grounds. A memory that remained long with the old man was his first use of a railway train for carrying horses. He had gone to the Montreal meeting, traveling by boat to Lachine, where the horses were landed and led the remainder of the journey. St. Hyacinthe was the next racing point, and the railway line had just been opened between Montreal and that place. Other owners were not inclined to trust their horses to this new and apparently dangerous method of transportation, but, with no small apprehension, Mr. Chappell took the risk and was much relieved when he and his horses were delivered at their destination in safety, after traveling at the incredible rate of about fifteen miles an hour, and you may be sure they had no palace cars. The other horses were roaded from Montreal, and the Chappell colors were victorious in every race in which they started at the meeting, so it was demonstrated that railway traveling did not take away their speed, anyway.

"There was another racing point in that territory of whose ancient glories not even the memory remains, though they may be found in the records, Caledonia Springs, up the Ottawa, now famed as one of the Canadian Pacific's great health and rest resorts, had another attraction in the long ago, and its visitors were able to see racing of much quality and variety. This program of sixty-four years ago makes quaint and interesting reading now:

ROYALTY'S INTEREST IN RACING.

The partiality of the British royal family for racing was exemplified one day recently when the king, who was visiting Blarritz, spent a few hours of the afternoon at the race course near that famous French resort. On the same day Queen Alexandra and Princess Victoria motored over from Sandringham to Fakenham for the West Norfolk Hunt Club steeplechases, where her majesty personally presented the King's Cup to the winner of the lightweight race. On the same day also the Prince and Princess of Wales saw an afternoon's racing at Newbury. Though the future king of England has not yet set up a racing establishment like his father, nor a breeding farm like his grandmother, he has a keen and increasing interest in the turf, and it is anticipated that his colors will be seen in action before long.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Eugene Lutz is on the way to Churchill Downs from Pensacola with his horses.

Charles Carroll's Night Rider won the Middlesex late at Hurst Park in England Saturday. J. E. Widener's Petropolis III. ran third in the Prix Des Peuplears at St. Cloud in France yester-Fitz Herbert will probably start in the Metropoli-tan Handicap at Belmont Park for the first time this year.

Before the running of the Greenfield Stakes at Aqueduct Friday Fred T. Wood refused an offer of $5,000 for Frank Mullens.

Livingston will race this season to Toronto this week. In the lot will be the three-year-old fillies Amelia Jenks and Sotemia.

Old-timers declare that the enthusiasm displayed over racing at Lexington this spring has been unequaled in Kentucky for twenty years or more and hail the conditions as indicating that the sport has once more come back to its own.

once more come back to its own.

Live Wire started in two races for ponies ab the Rockaway Hunt Club's meeting at Cedarhurst, L. I., Saturday and won them both. One of the races was at a quarter of a mile and the other at a half. Booger Red, recently purchased by Allan Pinkerton, also won a half-mile race for ponies.

W. K. Vanderbilt's horses continue to do well on the French tracks. Oversight won the Biennial Stakes of $5,000, at a mile and seven-eighths, over the Longchamps course Sunday. His Seasick ran second in the Prix Binion at Maisons-Laffitte Saturday and Barabossa ran third in the Prix de Vernon. Vesterday Defender carried the Vanderbilt colors to victory in the Prix de la Passerale, at a mile and four and a half furlongs.

There are persistent reports that the Sheepshead and four and a half furlongs.

There are persistent reports that the Sheepshead Bay and Gravesend meetings may be run off at Belmont Park in order to escape the possibility of a recurrence of the petty persecution that marked last year's meetings at those tracks. It is also intimated that the New York season may be terminated about November 1 in order to allow Pimilco to run without opposition from November 1 to November 16. If this plan materializes Jamestown probably will follow with a meeting, to run until November 30.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

J. B. J., Cincinnati, O. The straight bet of $5 of Crystal Maid won $7.25, the place bet of $5 won $2.50. The sum due was $19.75.

F. H. W., Cleveland, O. The Donau bet won $21. The straight parlay lost, the place parlay won $4.48, so the sum due was $50.48, the money bet included.

J. L. W., Kansas City, Mo. Race $9216 took place at Pimlico Wednesday, April 27, being the sixth race of that day. Missive won and Joe Kenyon and Keswick ran unplaced.

P. W., Chicago. "High" in betting quotations indicates the greatest price laid against a horse at any stage of the betting. The "highs" brought together in the majority of races would probably figure out "Putch." The quotation is simply for information and cuts no figure in settlements, which are always made on opening or closing, or the average of opening and closing.
